FIELD DAY IN HAMPTON ROADS

CHILDREN VIEW THE FLEET

Five Boat Races in Which Honors Are Divided.

Rear Admiral N. H. Farquhar is now commander of the North Atlantic fork (flagship) and the Brooklyn, the and the gunboat Scorpion, were present yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, when he double-starred blue flag fluttered to the after peak of the New York, and the after peak of the New York, and was saluted by the squadron and cheered by the hundreds lining the wharf at Old Point Comfort.

Rear Admiral Farquhar went aboard the New York in his launch, and was received with sides manned, trumper flourish and drum salute in the prescribed form. He held a formal and an informal reception, the first attended by officers of the fleet, the second, by his admirers alloat and ashore. The ceremony was impressive, and lasted but a few minutes. The impression seems to be thoroughly grounded among officers of the fleet that Rear Admiral Farquhar's term of office affoat will be brief, and that there is a likelihood of the South Atlantic squadron and the Asiatic becoming vastly more prominent in the near future than any others. Whether this is true remains to be seen.

THE PEOPLE GATHER.

At an early hour the people began to gather, many having spent the night at the Point and many more coming down early to witness the induction ceremonies of the new commander. Up to noon every train and up to 4 p. m. every boat to arrive brought its additional quota to the crowd that surged through the avenue, thronged the hotels, patronized everything in sight and walted with eagerness the results of the boat races, the chef d'ouvre of the day. The sky was one of cloud and sunshine intermingled, principally cloudy, but pleasant, with an increasing wind from eastward that gradually made the long roll of the ocean swell appreciable.

THE BOAT RACES.

Owing to the fact that the Texas,

THE BOAT RACES.

Owing to the fact that the Texas, with her gallant commander, Captain Sigsbee, was down the coast taking care of a couple of dangerous derelicts. Lieutenant Berfinadou, of the Indiana, the living hero of the Winslow, in Cardenas harbor, was left in charge of the races, with Lieutenant Shoemaker, of the Massachusetts, and Ensign Wadhams, of the New York, as able assistants on the regatta committee. Besides these were Lieutenant Gallup, U. S. A., of the artillery, and Mr. Tench, representing the Business Men's Association. Cadet Vincent, of the Indiana, acted also as one of the starters. The Brooklyn was coaling for her trip to Manila, from barges, off the Point, and her officers and men were debarred from participation in the events of the day. The races were all set for two miles and, tide serving, the starting point was a stake boat two miles to eastward of the wharf at the Point, the finish being made on a line from the western side of the pier across a stake boat to the prow of the beautiful shiprigged steam yacht "American" lying about a mile out.

THE FIRST.

The races started promptly at 2 p. m., the first being the marines' race, with starters from the Massachusetts,

BOTH PHONES 557.

New York and Indiana. The Scorplon performed duty as outer stake boat. The sea was light, but the swell considerable and the three tens made lively time, everything considered, the Massachusetts' men winning in 31 minutes, with the New York's second in 32 minutes and 48 seconds. The winning crew were Coxswain, Sergeant Fosdick, Smith. Fitzgerald, McNamara, Collins, Loring, Squires, Corbett, Manning, Krueger and Butterworth. The boys laid their winning to Krueger's oar and cheered for the Transvaal when questioned of the race.

THE SECOND.

The second race was for firemen, and was a whaleboat contest, crews from the U. S. S. New York and U. S. S. Indiana competing. The New Yorks won by two seconds only, the race making a beautiful finish, Coxswain T. L. Jones bringing his men in in fine shape. The winning crew consisted further of Nicopolous, Schaff, McCarty, Chosse, Davis, Johnson, Smith, Bent, Perkins, O'Rourke, Britton and Hutton. Both crews were loudly cheered for their plucky pulling.

THE THIRD RACE. THE SECOND.

THE THIRD RAGE.

The Third page.

The third race was for cutters, and seamen from the New York and Indiana competed, the New York crew winning by 12 seconds in a gamely contested race. It was impossible to get the names of the remaining winning crews, through lack of time and a launch.

THE FOURTH.

THE FOURTH.

The fourth race was for gigs, and seamen of the Indiana and Massachusetts competed, the Indiana crew wiping out their ship's former defeat by gliding over the line 14 seconds ahead of their competitors, though the New Yorkers might have been fathers to the Indianians in point of age.

THE FIFTH. The fifth race was for dingheys, and three crews competed, one each from the New York, Massachusetts and Indiana. Again the Indianians scooped victory with their oar-blades and made the other crews look like thirty cents, winning by seven seconds over New York and by forty-four over the Bay State defenders.

State defenders.

This closed the day's racing, each of the winning crews taking $50 as a prize and no doubt adding many a dollar won in bets to their shore money, while many a dollar changed hands in the fleet over the day's results.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The big crowd that had lined the wharves, pier, hotel galleries and vessels took their way to the fort outside ball ground, where was played a match game of ball between the army and navy, which closed the events of the Excursion boats were thick, and the old days of Point Comfort's gaiety seemed fully resumed.

REV. W. S. LACY, D. D.

This Greatly Beloved Divine Enters Upon His Eternal Reward.

ment This Afternoon - Other

A feeling of profound sorrow per vaded the entire community yesterday passed away at 4 a. m. at the home of his brother, Mr. B. R. Lacy, in Raleigh

After retiring from the pastorate of the Second Presbyterian Church, this city, in August last, Dr. Lacy went to Clifton Springs, New York, with the hope of recuperating his shattered health. After remaining there some time, and receiving little or no benefit, he returned a few weeks ago to his native State of North Carolina, making his home with his brother in Raleigh, where he proposed to spend the remainder of his days, or until he should recover sufficient strength to engage in literary and educational pursuits.

HIS WORK IN NORFOLK.

HIS WORK IN NORFOLK. The pastoral work of Dr. Laey in Norfolk ran through a period of eleven years, and during all that time he became endeared not only to his own flock, and the Presbyterian denomination, but to the citizens of Norfolk generally. He was a ripe scholar, and his sermons and writings were always tion, but to the citizens of Nortois gencrally. He was a ripe scholar, and his sermons and writings were always couched in the most elegant language.

He was an earnest and faithful minister of the Gospel of Christ, and a true and tender-hearted pastor, who devoted his life in the most conscientious manner to the work of his sacred calling.
He held high and dignified rank in his denomination.

Dr. Laey was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, and was also one of the Hymnal Committee of the Southern Presbyterian Church. He was very prominent in the Virginia branch of the Presbyterian Church. He was a gentleman of quiet and unassuming manners, and was exceedingly kind and courteous in all his aesociations with his fellow-men.

As A SOLDIER.

AS A SOLDIER.

Dr. Laey, at the time of his demise, was in the 58th year of his age. At the beginning of hostilities between the North and South, he was a ministerial student, but gave up his course of studies and entered the service of the Confederacy, in the Rockbridge Artillery, but afterwards served in the Danville Artillery and Signal Corps, and as Captain of the Forty-seventh North Carolina regiment. At the close of the war he resumed his ministerial studies. His ministerial life in the Presbyterian Church extended over a period of more than thirty years. He served in several charges in North Carolina, and came from Jonesboro, in that State, to take charge of the Second Church, this city, finally relinquishing his pastorate here on account of rapidly falling health.

Dr. Lacy was an honored member of Pickett-Buchanan Camp, Confederate Veterans, which will take proper recognition of his death.

The funeral will take proper recognition of his death.

The funeral will take place in Raleigh at 4 o'clock this afternoon. AS A SOLDIER.

THE SECOND CHURCH.

A session of the Second Presbyterian Church was held at 5 o'clock yester-day afternoon to take suitable action on day afternoon to take suitable action on the death of Dr. Lacy.

A delegation was appointed consisting of A. B. Broughton, elder, and W. M. Hannah, deacen to attend the funeral of their former beloved pastor, and to convey to his bereaved widow the sympathies of the church in this afficitive dispensation of Divine Resulting of Physics Board. flictive dispensation of Divine Provi-flictive dispensation of Divine Provi-dence.

On motion, Messrs. Broughton and Sheldon were constituted a committee to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Dr. Lacy, to be adopted at a future meeting and forwarded to Mrs. Lacy.

A GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. Reed, relict of the late Rev. Samuel S. Reed, at one time presiding elder of the Norfolk district of the Virginia Conference, M. E. Church, South, and mother of Rev. James C. Reed, who subsequently sustained the same relation to this district, died Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. T. Elam, at Farmville. The funeral and interment took place at Farmville Friday.

Mrs. Reed's son is now paster of Central Church, Manchester, and will have the sympathy of many Norfolk friends in his bereavement.

Positively no equal on earth in his profession.

Honesty.

If a firm asks you $400 for a Piano and then sells it to you for $250, are you quite sure that you might not have bought it for $200 if you had tried very hard? It certainly shows that he tried to overcharge you at the start, and had it been left to your wife or child they might have paid $150 more for the Piano than you did, or than it was worth. We have ONE PRICE ONLY and every Piano is MARKED IN PIAIN FIGURES, and your child ten years of age can buy one of our Pianos as low as the best business main in the city.

In case you have a second-hand Piano or an Organ to exchange toward a new one, then you are sure you are not being overcharged by us. You know just what you are getting for your old instrument.
